

Extracts from the GCRN Visitors Report May 2007

'We were able to visit the clinic and observe naturopathy students under qualified supervision taking case histories and assisting in giving advice to patients on diet, exercise and lifestyle.'

'The new clinic at Isopad House was of a good standard and busy.....the clinical training was assessed as being of a high standard.'

'The lecturers we saw were well prepared and clearly experienced and well informed. There was an excellent interaction between students and lecturers with the students highly attentive and clearly dedicated.'

'We met in private with the naturopathy students and were able to talk freely with them. Their enthusiasm for the course came across very strongly. A number had families. All were confident, highly motivated and had positively selected the college and naturopathy as their chosen future career path.'

'.....there was a good provision of electronic databases and naturopathic journals.....'

'The course units were well organised and design and content sound.'

'It was the view of the visiting party that the Diploma in Naturopathy course should receive Accreditation for a Quinquennial period.'
